

GDPR is coming

To all EBS customers

We respect the trust you place in us when you share your information with us. We are letting you know about your new Data Protection Notice which has been changed to meet the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The Data Protection Notice will give you details on how we collect information about you, how we keep your information safe, how long we keep your information for, and how we use it. It also gives you more information on your significantly strengthened rights and our obligations under the GDPR. It may change from time to time.

You can find your new Data Protection Notice at ebs.ie/dataprotection or in our EBS network offices. If you have any questions you can check out our website or call into our network offices
