

18th October 2007

EBS announces board appointments

Issued Thursday 18 October, 2007. EBS Building Society has appointed two new non executive directors to its Board, Pat McCann and Liam Mulvihill. The appointments are subject to the normal Central Bank of Ireland approval process.

Pat McCann was formerly Chief Executive of Jurys Doyle Hotel Group plc, and was recently appointed Chief Executive of the Quality/Comfort Inn Hotel Group. Pat McCann is also a non executive director of Greencore Group plc and the Irish Heart Foundation.

Liam Mulvihill is the outgoing Director General of the GAA, a position he has held since 1979. He also filled various roles with a number of State bodies throughout his career, including stints on the RTE Authority, Bord na Gaeilge, and the Irish Sports Council.

Discussing the appointments, Mark Moran, Chairman of EBS Building Society said; "We are delighted to welcome directors of this calibre to the Board of EBS Building Society. I have no doubt that both Pat McCann, with his wealth of business experience from his background in Ireland's foremost hotel group, and Liam Mulvihill, with his vast experience of running one of the largest member organisations in the country, will make important contributions to the Board of EBS."