Emer Finnan appointed Finance Director at EBS

EBS Building Society today announced the appointment of Emer Finnan as Finance Director with immediate effect.

Ms. Finnan was appointed an Executive Director of EBS in 2007 with responsibility for strategy, legal and company secretarial services. Emer has over 20 years experience in financial services.

Prior to joining EBS she worked as a Director with NCB Corporate Finance with responsibility for financial services and advised on a large number of financial services transactions. Emer also previously worked with ABN AMRO, Citibank and KPMG.

Commenting on the appointment the Chief Executive of EBS Fergus Murphy said "Emer brings exceptional experience and skills to the role of Finance Director at this important time both for EBS and the Financial Services sector. The Board and I are delighted with her appointment and believe she will make a very positive contribution to the further development of EBS."

In line with regulatory requirements EBS has considered potential conflicts of interest and is satisfied that none exist.
